

Myntra launches Bengaluru's first in-house corporate Pickleball court

Myntra just leveled up its employee wellness game with a brand-new, state-of-the-art Pickleball court! We celebrated the launch with badminton champion Ashwini Ponnappa. This fun and fast-growing sport is a perfect way for Myntraites to stay active, connect with colleagues, and recharge. The Pickleball court joins our other awesome sports facilities, like the tennis court, gym, and more, as part of Myntra's ongoing effort to create a vibrant and engaging workplace. It's all about promoting well-being and making Myntra an employee-first company!

Read here: IANS

Myntra launches ShE-sparks to equip women in college

SPARK CONVERSATIONS.
BROADEN AWARENESS.

ShE-sparks by ShE-commerce
Empowering Women in E-commerce brings you a 3-part program, designed to upskill and empower you!

Join the first session on
CORPORATE READINESS: EXPECTATIONS vs REALITY

28th February, 2025 | 5 PM-6 PM

Register now!

We are proud to present ShE-sparks, a unique ShE-commerce initiative that promises to equip women in college with the right tools to navigate their professional journey. Born from our vision to bridge the gap between college and career among women, this program, in partnership with Aspire For Her, will see brilliant leaders within Myntra and beyond guide women into the field of e-commerce.

Commonwealth games champion Ashwini Ponappa joins Myntraites for an Off The Cuff Session

Before the grand opening of our new Pickleball court, badminton star Ashwini Ponnappa and Karnataka State Pickleball Association Founder Rajath Kankar joined Myntraites for a lively Off The Cuff session. Ashwini shared her inspiring journey along with insights on badminton, the rising popularity of pickleball, and the importance of overall wellness and health. It was a fantastic opportunity for Myntraites to connect with these sports leaders!